

TRIO OF JUNE WEDDINGS WILL BE CELEBRATED DURING COMING WEEK

JUNE seems to be set aside particularly for Dan Cupid, and of course as everyone loves a lover, and as brides are the most interesting persons in the world to all of their friends, the June weddings have drawn all the interest of things social for the coming week. The first part of the week will be filled with parties and dinners in honor of the brides to be, and the lucky men who have won them, and on Wednesday three brides will be led to the altar. Miss Glen Adams, whose marriage to Lieut. John Thompson will be solemnized with military pomp in the church of the Immaculate Conception at 3 o'clock, Miss Lena Deep, whose marriage to Samuel Brewitt will take place in the First Presbyterian church at 3 o'clock and Miss Violet Anderson, who will be married to John H. Youngkin in the Highland Park Baptist church at 3 o'clock. Mrs. U. S. Stewart will give a dinner for the Adams-Thompson bride party Tuesday night, which will be a very pretty affair. Although the weddings and brides will be the most absorbing events of interest through the week, there will be a number of social and formal social affairs that will keep things from being dull socially. Mrs. Robert D. Read will entertain the Army bridge club Monday morning at her home, and as she is known to be a most charming hostess, the members are anticipating a delightful time. The usual church affairs and meetings will occur through the week and on Friday the general aid society of the First Methodist church will combine business and pleasure by going to Rosedale farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Caldwell, and picnic there. Saturday the daughters of the American Revolution are arranging a baseball game that will be played between two of the city league's star-studded baseball teams to the accompaniment of a concert by one of the military bands in the city. Next Sunday, Flag Day, the daughters of Erin are planning for a picnic down the valley near Tealta.

Cards

Mrs. Paul Glinther was hostess Friday afternoon at a delightful bridge party. White carnations were used lavishly through the rooms in decoration. In the card games, Mrs. W. P. Miller won the first prize, an antique silver set, and Mrs. D. V. Fennerty won the second prize, a purse. During the afternoon punch was served and when the games were completed an ice course was served at the card tables. Each card table was decorated with a floral arrangement of pink and white sweet peas, representing the four suits of cards, hearts, clubs, diamonds and spades. Among the guests were Mesdames A. J. Eyer, Harry Wals, Herbert Nunn, W. W. Stewart, D. V. Fennerty, W. O. Miller, Harris, E. E. Sanders, Thomas Quiley, V. E. Riegler, F. H. Todd, F. J. Simmons, Frank Scott, Fickleton, Lee Orndorff, Miss Sue Cramble and Miss Elizabeth Simmons.

Dances

Miss Edna Long entertained with a delightful informal dancing party at her home on North Ance street Friday night. The house was decorated with pink and white peas, punch was served during the dance intermissions, and later in the evening an ice course was enjoyed. A two piece orchestra supplied the music for the dancers. Among these were: Mrs. A. A. Braff, Emma Tiekman, Helen Stimmel, Margaret Smith, Evelyn Buchanan, Florence Sanders, Helen Aguirre, Leona Over, Edna Long, and the boys were Billy Crowley, John Rafter, A. Schubert, Steve Aguirre, Steve Leiros, Harry Connors, Baker, W. A. Street, Frank Myers and Oliver Carr. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Long and Mr. and Mrs. A. Lee chaperoned the young people.

El Pasoans should be greatly flattered to have in their midst such renowned musicians as Mr. Hlavacek and Prof. Koeh. The former studied in Prague, Bohemia. His perfect understanding of his beloved violin proclaims him a virtuoso of no little merit. Prof. Koeh, the pianist, who has been known in El Paso for many years, has truly a wonderful conception of his art. The Potter Floral and Confectionery Co. should consider themselves fortunate indeed to have secured the valued services of these artists. The musical numbers of this orchestra are superior to any other in the city. It is a well known fact that the Potter Floral and Confectionery, located in the Mills Bldg., always secure the finest quality in all things, just as they maintain in their delicious candies, ice creams, refreshments and choice cut flowers.—Advertisement.
